2. The Military Secretary has now submitted the Proceedings of the Court of Enquiry ordered to be held by him to investigate the above two points. The Court was held on the 25th January 1913. The Lance Daffedar and the Division Commander state that the mule is in the habit of kicking and the latter also adds that "he has kicked the other two drivers during grooming time but the kicks were not Serious". The Court have formed the opinion that the injury was sustained in the execution of public duty through no fault of the driver. The opinion seems to be Sound and acceptable.

I Shall think that there no case for wound pension. To kick is in the very nature of mules, and a muleteer or mule driver when he undertakes such service is known to undertake the known risks of this service. Here is what may happen to every mule Driver & Cannot be made the ground for Special Consideration. Then many Service pensions & gratuities now seem to meet the requirements of the Case—

I think the terms of art 381 MSR are satisfied & the pension may be Sd—
